

Sonoran Desert Regional Missions

Mission work with the American Indians of the Arizona Sonoran Desert is now vested in three Mission Service Corps couples who live on the reservations. All are fully self supported. The persistence of their faith and personal sacrifice is undergirded by that of their partners who supply the necessary funds and prayer support. Ken and Thurleen Bain were called to hold up the arms of Indian believers as Aaron and Hur did for Moses. As the additional missionaries have arrived with giftings and passion to put the work into overdrive, the Bain's hold up their arms as well.

In their quest to find critically needed innovative sources of missions funding, the missionaries have organized as "Sonoran Desert Regional Missions." Ken and Thurleen traveled to Springfield IL to establish a fund through the Baptist Foundation of Illinois. The foundation is prepared to receive funding, including Christian Family Estate Planning. Distributions are to be made according to the pre-established wishes of participating donors.
